

In this issue:

Cover

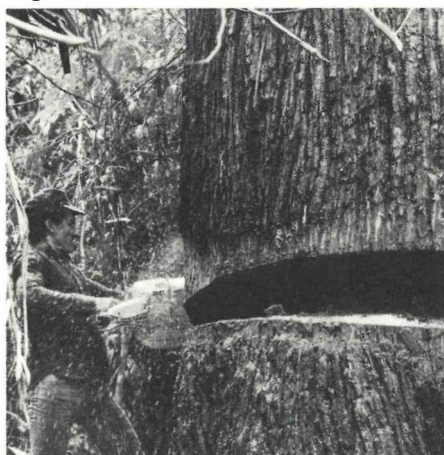

Page 10

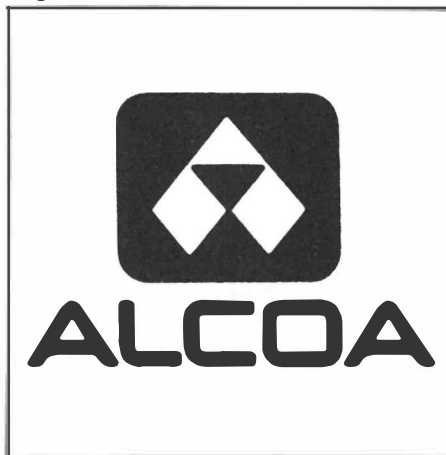

Page 22

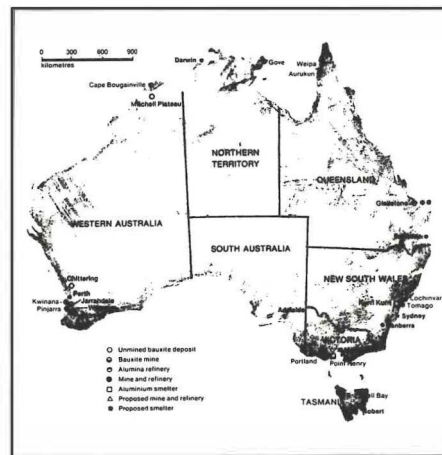

Page 38

Page 43

Page 48

Cover

Logging in the Amazon.
Photo by Nair Benedicto/F4

- 4 Editorial
- 6 Basic facts on the timber, pulp and paper industries
By Eva Skult, RMR.
- 10 Forestry and development: the possibilities of Central and West Africa
By Tord Ekström, RMR.
- 22 The Levers in the Solomon Islands
By Tony Marjoram and Sue Fleming, Technology specialist and researcher at the University of the South Pacific, Tonga.
- 38 The Jari project in Brazil
By Sten Haage, Chief of Staaf, Ny Teknik, Stockholm.

- 43 Basic facts on the bauxite, alumina and aluminium industries
By Andreas Tegen and John Dryden, RMR.
- 48 Structural changes in the world aluminium industry – the implications for Australia
By Ann Hodgkinson, Lecturer in Economics, Canberra College of Advanced Education.
- 64 The aluminium industry in Australia – a review
By Ann Hodgkinson.
- 74 Book reviews

Credits:

p3 (left to right) Nair Benedicto/F4; United Nations; Unilever; Nair Benedicto/F4; Alcoa; Australian Dept of Trade and Resources, p6 Jan E Carlsson, p8 P Teuscher/UN (top); A Holbrooke/UN (bottom left); Paul Almsay/WHO, p10 Aracruz Cellulose; p10 Citicorp (bottom), p16 unknown artist (top); UN (bottom), p19 UN, p22 UN; p24 Unilever (bottom), p33 G Fredrici, p34-5 T Marjoram/S Fleming, p38 Malcolm Höök, p40 Nair Benedicto/F4 (top); G Morel (bottom); p42 Malcolm Höök, p48 National Geographic Magazine (top); Kristian Petri (bottom), p64 Australian Information Service.